

2015 (Thirteenth Annual)

FLOATING ZENDO SESSHIN

August 3-10 at Jikoji

Jikoji is a Soto Zen temple and retreat center located at 12100 Skyline Blvd, Los Gatos, CA 95033, approximately one hour south of San Francisco, in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Jikoji offers an opportunity to practice in a scenic rural setting.

with Angie Boissevain, Sensei

Sesshin begins with registration at 4:00 pm on Monday, August 3, followed by a social dinner at 6:00 pm. Sesshin ends on Monday, August 10 after a social breakfast and a clean-up period, finishing by noon.

All meals will be vegetarian. Breakfast and lunch will be served Oryoki-style in the Dining Room; dinner is buffet-style. Tenzo will do their best to accommodate special food needs.

Retreat and accommodation fees:

- $400 for the week (7 nights)
- $60 for the night (includes campers)
- $38 for the day

Jikoji's dorms and double rooms feature comfortable bunk beds. Some rooms have an adjoining bathroom and shower. Couples are guaranteed a private room. An ADA bathroom is available.

Please note:

- Teacher dana is not included in fees
- Some scholarships are available up to 50% of full rate; (must be approved prior to sesshin)
- Early registration is encouraged. At time of registration, declare any food allergies or special needs
- Sesshin schedule will be posted on the Floating Zendo web site in late July

Angie Enji Boissevain has been a student of Kobun Chino Otagawa Roshi for 40 years and was one of his students who, with Kobun, created and founded Jikoji, where she was director during its first twelve years. For a long time she was a visiting teacher to a number of distant sanghas, as well as guiding teacher for Floating Zendo in San Jose. Floating Zendo is now her primary focus, and she also offers occasional writing workshops in the San Francisco Bay Area.
